3 Provider Agreement 3.1 The Customer agrees to comply with the terms of the Provider Agreement and acknowledges and agrees that: 3.1.1 Crown Communication facilitates the entry into the Provider Agreement between the Customer and the Provider, but is not a party to it and has no liability to the Customer in relation to it or any breach of it by the Provider; 3.1.2 the Network Services shall be supplied by the Provider in accordance with the terms of the Provider Agreement; 3.1.3 the Customer's obligations to the Provider (including in relation to payment of charges) are separate to the Customer's obligations to Crown Communication; and 3.1.4 the Services are separate from, and ancillary to, the Network Services. 3.2 If the Provider Agreement is terminated before the expiry of the Minimum Term, the Contract shall automatically terminate in accordance with clause 15.1 and the provisions of clause 16 shall apply. 3.3 If the Customer fails to pay any two consecutive invoices issued to it by the Provider by their due dates, Crown Communication may blacklist the Equipment on the Central Equipment Identity Register (which renders such Equipment unusable). 3.4 The Customer shall not vary the terms of the Provider Agreement without Crown Communication's prior written consent.	6 Goods – warranties, replacements and returns 6.1 6.2 6.3 6.4 6.5 6.6 6.7	Goods – warranties, replacements and returns Goods, where new, are provided with the benefit of and subject to the manufacturer's warranty and guarantee (Manufacturer's Warranty). Details of the Manufacturer's Warranty are set out on the relevant manufacturer's website or in the user guide or license relating to the Goods (including the duration of any warranty period). Goods referred to as 'pre-owned' or 'nearly new' have been returned to Crown Communication by customers (usually during the first 14 days after delivery) with no reported faults. They have been tested to ensure they are fit for purpose and of satisfactory quality. Pre-owned devices are provided with original accessories and user guides, and in original packaging whenever possible (but the Customer acknowledges that substitute packaging may be used). Goods referred to as 'refurbished' have been through a recycling programme. They have been tested to ensure they are fit for purpose and of satisfactory quality. Refurbished devices are provided with a data cable and SIM key, but without any other accessories or user guides, and not in original packaging. Pre-owned and refurbished Goods are supplied with the benefit of and subject to the Manufacturer's Warranty save that the warranty period shall be limited to 12 months from delivery. Except as provided in this clause 6, Crown Communication shall have no liability to the Customer in respect of the failure of Goods to comply with the applicable Manufacturer's Warranty. Subject to clause 6.7 and any additional terms set out in a Schedule, Crown Communication shall not be under any obligation to exchange, repair or replace Goods or provide any refunds. Where Equipment supplied to the Customer is or becomes faulty during the relevant Manufacturer's Warranty period and for a reason covered by the Manufacturer's Warranty (which excludes the Customer's acts, omissions or misuse):
4 Customer authority 4.1 By agreement with Crown Communication, the Customer may (from time to time) provide Crown Communication with the names, email addresses and telephone numbers of those individuals who are authorised by the Customer to make, and from whom Crown Communication may accept, changes to the Customer's account, existing Network Services and Orders, and additional Orders for Network Services, Goods and/or Services. The Customer may, at any time and by giving not less than 2 Business Days' written notice, notify Crown Communication of changes to the individuals authorised under this clause 4.1. Such notification shall not affect the validity of any action taken by Crown Communication prior to expiry of such notice. 4.2 Where the Customer requires additional Network Services (such as additional connections) under an existing Provider Agreement, and where agreed by Crown Communication and accepted by the relevant Provider, an Order shall: 4.2.1 constitute authority for Crown Communication, as agent for the Customer, to execute such documents and take such other steps as are necessary to give effect to such Order with the Provider; 4.2.2 incorporate the terms of the applicable Provider Agreement as between the Customer and the Provider in relation to the additional Network Services; and 4.2.3 as between the Customer and Crown Communication, be on and subject to these Conditions.	6.7.1 6.7.2 6.7.3 6.7.4 6.8	The Customer should report the fault to Crown Communication's customer services team on 0121 327 3441 or to the dedicated customer support telephone number and email address set out in the Order Form. The Customer must re-package the faulty Equipment and ensure that such Equipment and all original accessories are returned to Crown Communication at the Customer's cost and risk by such post or courier service as shall ensure proof of delivery and sufficient insurance to cover the value of the Equipment to Crown Communication Limited, Salford House, 533-537 Lichfield Road, Birmingham, B6 7SP (or as otherwise directed by Crown Communication). Crown Communication shall inspect the returned Equipment and may return it to the manufacturer. Crown Communication may, at its sole discretion and subject to inspection of the faulty Equipment, elect to either: (a) provide replacement Equipment (subject to clause 6.8); or (b) refund such sum as Crown Communication reasonably considers to be the current market value of the faulty Equipment. The Customer acknowledges that, where it is determined (either by Crown Communication acting reasonably, or by the manufacturer) that the fault is not covered by the Manufacturer's Warranty, the Customer remains liable for any sums outstanding in respect of such item of Equipment and:
5 Goods – ordering and delivery 5.1 Where the Order is for the purchase of Goods only, clauses 3, 8 and 10 shall not apply. 5.2 The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the Goods are correct and appropriate for the Customer's intended use and requirements. 5.3 Crown Communication reserves the right to amend the specification or model of any of the Goods if required by any applicable statutory or regulatory requirements, if the manufacturer changes such specification or discontinues such model, or if stock of such model becomes otherwise unavailable, between the date of the Order and the time of despatch. Crown Communication will endeavour to ensure that any such substituted Goods will be of equal or better quality. 5.4 Crown Communication shall deliver the Goods to the Shipping Address. 5.5 Any lead times or dates quoted for delivery of the Goods are approximate only, and time of delivery is not of the essence. The Goods may be delivered by Crown Communication in advance of any dates quoted for delivery of the Goods. 5.6 Delivery of the Goods shall be completed on the arrival of the Goods at the Shipping Address.	6.8.1 (a) (b)	where the faulty Equipment can be repaired: (a) the Customer shall return to Crown Communication any replacement Equipment supplied pursuant to clause 6.7.4(a) (at the Customer's cost and risk) or pay Crown Communication the full cost of such replacement Equipment; and (b) at the Customer's option, Crown Communication shall (i) repair the faulty Equipment and the Customer shall pay the cost of repair, or (ii) return the faulty Equipment to the Customer at the Customer's cost and risk and the Customer shall pay a diagnostic fee of £40 plus VAT, or (iii) dispose of faulty Equipment in accordance with the Waste Electric and Electronic Equipment (WEEE) Regulations 2013 and the Customer shall pay a diagnostic fee of £40 plus VAT;

- 6.8.2 where the faulty Equipment cannot be repaired, the Customer shall pay Crown Communication the full cost of any replacement Equipment supplied pursuant to clause 6.7.4(a).
- 6.9 The Customer acknowledges and accepts that it is solely responsible for ensuring the backup of any important or confidential data stored on the Equipment prior to its return to Crown Communication and the Customer agrees that Crown Communication will not be liable if any such data is lost or corrupted during any process set out in clauses 6.7 and 6.8.
- 6.10 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this clause 6, no liability will be accepted under any Goods warranty or guarantee where any Customer invoice is overdue.
- 7 Risk and retention of title
- 7.1 The risk in the Goods shall pass to the Customer on completion of delivery.
- 7.2 Notwithstanding delivery and the passing of risk in the Goods, or any other provision of the Contract, legal and beneficial title to the Goods shall not pass to the Customer until:
- 7.2.1 in respect of Goods for which Crown Communication has invoiced the Customer, Crown Communication has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) for those Goods; or
- 7.2.2 in respect of Goods which Crown Communication has provided or paid for (in whole or in part) by way of Investment:
- (a) the Provider has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) of all sums due from the Customer under the Provider Agreement in respect of the Minimum Term (including any Provider Recovery Charges); and
- (b) where applicable, Crown Communication has received payment in full (in cash or cleared funds) of any Investment Recovery Charge.
- 7.3 Title to subscriber identity module (SIM) cards provided to the Customer to enable use of the Provider shall not pass to the Customer and is governed by the terms of the Provider Agreement.
- 7.4 Until title to the Goods has passed to the Customer, the Customer shall:
- 7.4.1 keep accurate records of the location or keeper of the Goods;
- 7.4.2 maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition and in accordance with the relevant manufacturer's warranty, guarantee and user guide;
- 7.4.3 keep them insured against all risks for their full replacement value from the date of delivery;
- 7.4.4 notify Crown Communication immediately if it becomes subject to any of the events listed in clauses 15.2.3 to 15.2.12; and
- 7.4.5 give Crown Communication such information relating to the Goods as Crown Communication may require from time to time.
- 7.5 If, before title to the Goods passes to the Customer, the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clauses 15.2.3 to 15.2.14, or Crown Communication reasonably believes that any such event is about to happen and notifies the Customer accordingly, then, without limiting any other right or remedy Crown Communication may have, Crown Communication may at any time:
- 7.5.1 require the Customer at the Customer's own cost and expense to deliver up the Goods in its possession; or
- 7.5.2 without further notice enter any premises of the Customer or of any third party where the Goods may be kept or stored in order to recover them.
- 7.6 The Customer shall at all times ensure that any and all parties that seek to assert any right or claim against the Customer are made fully aware that the Goods are subject to reservation of title by Crown Communication and that the Goods are not the property of the Customer.
- 7.7 If, for whatever reason, any party seeks to assert any right or claim against the Customer or the Goods, the Customer shall at its own cost and expense defend any such right or claim such as to preserve the reservation of title of the Goods and/or at Crown Communication's request join any proceedings brought by Crown Communication in relation to the Goods.
- 8 Services
- 8.1 Where applicable, Crown Communication shall provide the Services in all material respects in accordance with any specific terms and conditions set out in the Services Schedule.
- 8.2 Where Crown Communication has agreed to dates, levels or standards in respect of the performance of any Services, such criteria must be detailed in writing on an Order Form or in the Services Schedule. Crown Communication shall use reasonable endeavours to meet such performance criteria, but failure to do so shall not constitute a breach of Contract.
- 8.3 Crown Communication shall have the right to make any changes to the Services which are necessary to comply with any Applicable Law or safety requirement or which do not materially affect the nature or quality of the Services.
- 9 Third party software
- 9.1 Third Party Software is licensed under and subject to the terms of any standard form end user license agreement (including shrink-wrap or click-through software licenses) and open source license provided with the Goods.
- 9.2 Crown Communication shall not provide support services in relation to Third Party Software unless specified otherwise on the Order Form and/or Services Schedule.
- 10 Investment
- 10.1 In addition to the provisions set out in these Conditions, Investment is subject to the terms and conditions set out elsewhere in the Contract, including (without limitation) on the Order Form and in an Investment Schedule.
- 10.2 Unless agreed otherwise by Crown Communication, Investment shall only accrue and be released or made available to the Customer in equal amounts (calculated by dividing the total Investment by the number of months in the Minimum Term) at the end of each completed month of the Provider Agreement during the Minimum Term. If total Investment changes during the Minimum Term, future monthly accrual amounts will be adjusted accordingly. For the avoidance of doubt, Investment ceases to accrue:
- 10.2.1 in respect of all relevant Connections upon termination of the Contract and/or the Provider Agreement for any reason; and
- 10.2.2 in respect of any Connection upon disconnection from the Provider's network, Downward Migration or transfer away from Crown Communication of the account management of that Connection.
- 10.3 Crown Communication reserves the right to withhold payment or release of any Investment should the Customer fall into arrears under the Provider Agreement, the Contract or any other contract between Crown Communication and the Customer.
- 10.4 Where Investment takes the form of any payment to the Customer:
- 10.4.1 if the Customer wishes any payment to include VAT, the Customer must provide Crown Communication with a valid VAT invoice at least 30 days in advance of payment; and
- 10.4.2 any payment required by the Customer to be made by cheque will incur a processing fee.
- 10.5 The Customer shall pay the Investment Recovery Charge:
- 10.5.1 in respect of any Connection, upon disconnection from the Provider's network, Downward Migration or transfer away from Crown Communication of the account management of that Connection; and
- 10.5.2 in respect of all Connections, upon termination of the Contract and/or the Provider Agreement before expiry of the Minimum Term; and/or
- 10.5.3 where a Minimum Spend has been agreed and the Customer has failed to achieve the Minimum Spend by expiry of the Minimum Term or earlier termination (for any reason) of the Contract and/or the Provider Agreement.
- 11 Price
- 11.1 Crown Communication reserves the right, by giving written notice to the Customer at any time before delivery of the Goods or provision of the Services, to increase prices to reflect any increase in the cost to Crown Communication which is due to any:
- 11.1.1 factor beyond the control of Crown Communication (including any foreign exchange fluctuation, currency regulation, alteration of duties, significant increase in the costs of labour, materials or other costs of manufacture);
- 11.1.2 change in delivery dates, quantities or specifications for the Goods and/or Services which are requested by the Customer; or
- 11.1.3 delay caused by any instructions of the Customer or failure of the Customer to give Crown Communication adequate information or instructions.
- 11.2 Unless otherwise stated on the Order Form, all prices are inclusive of Crown Communication's charges for packaging and transport.
- 11.3 Unless otherwise stated on the Order Form, all prices are exclusive of any applicable value added tax, excise, sales taxes or levies of a similar nature and all other taxes and charges in respect of the Goods and/or Services, which shall be payable by the Customer in addition.
- 11.4 The Customer shall pay all amounts due under the Contract in full without any deduction or withholding except as required by law and the Customer shall not be entitled to assert any credit, set-off or counterclaim against Crown Communication in order to justify withholding payment in whole or in part. Crown Communication may, without limiting its other rights and remedies, set-off any amount owing to it by the Customer against any amount payable by Crown Communication to the Customer (including any Investment).
- 12 Payment
- 12.1 Crown Communication shall invoice the Customer on or at any time after acceptance of the Order, delivery of the Goods and/or the provision of the Services (as applicable) or as otherwise specified on the Order Form or Schedule.
- 12.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Provider shall invoice the Customer in respect of Network Services.
- 12.3 If the Customer wrongfully fails to take delivery of Goods, Crown Communication shall be entitled to invoice the Customer for the Goods at any time after Crown Communication has tendered delivery of such Goods.
- 12.4 The Customer shall pay each invoice submitted by Crown Communication within the number of days from the date of such invoice as set out on the Order Form (or if no such number is so set out then within 14 days), and in full and in cleared funds to a bank account nominated in writing by Crown Communication.
- 12.5 Payment shall be made on or before the due date for payment (Due Date) notwithstanding that delivery or provision may not have taken place and/or that the title to the Goods has not passed to the Customer.
- 12.6 Crown Communication may credit assess the Customer from time to time to determine the credit limit on the Customer's account. If Crown Communication is not satisfied as to the creditworthiness of the Customer, it may notify the Customer that no further credit will be allowed and may require all amounts owing by the Customer to Crown Communication to be paid immediately.
- 12.7 Without limiting any other right or remedy of Crown Communication, if the Customer fails to make any payment due to Crown Communication under the Contract or any other contract between Crown Communication and the Customer by the relevant due date for payment, Crown Communication shall be entitled to:
- 12.7.1 cancel any Order or suspend any further provision of Goods and/or Services to the Customer;
- 12.7.2 deduct monies up to the value of the overdue amount from any sum standing to the credit of the Customer's account with Crown Communication, including any Investment;
- 12.7.3 suspend payment or availability to the Customer of any Investment;
- 12.7.4 blacklist the Equipment on the Central Equipment Identity Register (which renders such Equipment unusable); and
- 12.7.5 charge interest on the overdue amount at the highest rate permitted by Applicable Law from the Due Date until the date of actual payment of the overdue amount, whether before or after judgment.

12.8	If the Customer disputes the amount of any Crown Communication invoice:	14.4.3	any other matter for which it would be unenforceable or invalid to seek to limit or exclude liability.
12.8.1	the Customer shall pay any undisputed portion of the invoice;	14.5	To the extent that any of the Goods or Services are provided by third parties:
12.8.2	the Customer shall write to Crown Communication within 10 Business Days of the date of the invoice providing details of:	14.5.1	notwithstanding the provisions of clause 6, the Customer acknowledges that it must rely entirely on the guarantees and warranties which may have been given by the third party manufacturer, software or service provider to Crown Communication, which Crown Communication will endeavour to pass on to the Customer;
	(a) the nature and reason for the dispute;	14.5.2	Crown Communication's liability will be limited to such sums as it recovers from the relevant Provider; and
	(b) the amount in dispute; and	14.5.3	Crown Communication's obligations shall be limited to managing the provision of such services by such third party and Crown Communication shall not be in breach of the Contract to the extent that such breach was caused, or contributed to, by the act or omission of such third party (and Crown Communication shall be entitled to make a reasonable additional charge for any additional services it provides to rectify the effects of the act or omission).
	(c) any evidence to support the disputed amount;
12.8.3	if Crown Communication can demonstrate that the invoice is correct Crown Communication shall be entitled to charge interest in accordance with clause 12.7.5; and
12.8.4	if Crown Communication determines that the disputed invoice is incorrect Crown Communication shall issue a corrected invoice and/or apply the relevant credit to the Customer's account.	14.6	This clause 14 shall survive termination of the Contract.
13	Customer's obligations and warranties	15	Term and termination
13.1	The Customer shall:	15.1	The Contract shall commence on the Commencement Date and shall continue until:
13.1.1	ensure that the Order Form is complete and accurate;	15.1.1	the Provider Agreement is terminated for any reason, whereupon the Contract shall automatically terminate. Where there is more than one Provider Agreement, the Contract shall only terminate in respect of the terminated Provider Agreement and the Goods and Services supplied in relation thereto, and shall continue in respect of any continuing Provider Agreement; or
13.1.2	co-operate with Crown Communication in all matters relating to the Goods and/or Services;	15.1.2	terminated pursuant to clause 15.2 or 20.2.
13.1.3	follow all reasonable instructions from Crown Communication from time to time in connection with the Services;	15.2	Without limiting its other rights or remedies, a party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving Notice to the other party if:
13.1.4	provide Crown Communication with such information and materials as Crown Communication may reasonably require to supply the Services, and ensure that such information is accurate in all material respects;	15.2.1	the other party fails to pay any amount due under the Contract (and which has not been disputed in accordance with clause 12.8.2) on the due date for payment and remains in default no less than 30 days after being notified in writing to make such payment;
13.1.5	provide the names and contact details of Authorised Contacts (and agree levels of authority where requested by Crown Communication), but Crown Communication may also accept instructions from a person who Crown Communication reasonably believes is acting with Customer authority; and	15.2.2	the other party commits a material breach of its obligations under the Contract and (if such breach is remediable) fails to remedy that breach within 30 days after being notified in writing to do so;
13.1.6	authorise Crown Communication to act on its behalf in all dealings with third parties in connection with any matter that enables Crown Communication to provide or continue to provide the Customer with the Services.	15.2.3	the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or admits inability to pay its debts or (being a company or limited liability partnership) is deemed unable to pay its debts within the meaning of section 123 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being an individual) is deemed either unable to pay its debts or as having no reasonable prospect of so doing, in either case, within the meaning of section 268 of the Insolvency Act 1986 or (being a partnership) has any partner to whom any of the foregoing apply;
13.2	The Customer warrants that:	15.2.4	the other party commences negotiations with all or any class of its creditors with a view to rescheduling any of its debts, or makes a proposal for or enters into any compromise or arrangement with its creditors other than (where a company) for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of that other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party;
13.2.1	it has the authority to enter into the Contract and the Provider Agreement; and	15.2.5	a petition is filed, a notice is given, a resolution is passed, or an order is made, for or in connection with the winding up of the other party (being a company) other than for the sole purpose of a scheme for a solvent amalgamation of the other party with one or more other companies or the solvent reconstruction of that other party;
13.2.2	it is a business and in contracting with Crown Communication in accordance with the Contract it is not acting for a purpose which could be regarded as outside its trade or profession.	15.2.6	the other party (being an individual) is the subject of a bankruptcy petition or order;
13.3	If Crown Communication's performance of any of its obligations in respect of the Services is prevented or delayed by any act or omission by the Customer or failure by the Customer to perform any relevant obligation (Customer Default):	15.2.7	a creditor or encumbrancer of the other party attaches or takes possession of, or a distress, execution, sequestration or other such process is levied or enforced on or sued against, the whole or any part of its assets and such attachment or process is not discharged within 14 days;
13.3.1	Crown Communication shall without limiting its other rights or remedies have the right to suspend performance of the Services until the Customer remedies the Customer Default, and to rely on the Customer Default to relieve it from the performance of any of its obligations to the extent the Customer Default prevents or delays Crown Communication's performance of any of its obligations;	15.2.8	an application is made to court, or an order is made, for the appointment of an administrator or if a notice of intention to appoint an administrator is given or if an administrator is appointed over the other party (being a company);
13.3.2	Crown Communication shall not be liable for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by the Customer arising directly or indirectly from Crown Communication's failure or delay to perform any of its obligations as set out in this clause 13.2; and	15.2.9	the holder of a qualifying charge over the assets of the other party (being a company) has become entitled to appoint or has appointed an administrative receiver;
13.3.3	the Customer shall reimburse Crown Communication on written demand for any costs or losses sustained or incurred by Crown Communication arising directly or indirectly from the Customer Default.	15.2.10	a floating charge holder over the assets of the other party has become entitled to appoint or has appointed an administrative receiver;
14	Liability	15.2.11	a person becomes entitled to appoint a receiver over the assets of the other party or a receiver is appointed over the assets of the other party;
14.1	Without prejudice to clause 13.2 and subject to clause 14.4:	15.2.12	any event occurs, or proceeding is taken, with respect to the other party in any jurisdiction to which it is subject that has an effect equivalent or similar to any of the events mentioned in clauses 15.2.3 to 15.2.11 (inclusive);
14.1.1	neither party shall be liable under any circumstances to the other, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, arising under or in connection with the Contract for:	15.2.13	the other party suspends, threatens to suspend, ceases or threatens to cease to carry on, all or substantially the whole of its business; or
	(a) any loss of profits, sales, business, or revenue;	15.2.14	the other party's financial position deteriorates to such an extent that in Crown Communication's opinion the Customer's capability to adequately fulfil its obligations under the Contract or Provider Agreement has been placed in jeopardy.
	(b) loss or corruption of data, information or software;
	(c) loss of business opportunity;	16	Consequences of termination
	(d) loss of anticipated savings;	16.1	On termination of all or part of the Contract for any reason:
	(e) loss of or damage to goodwill; or	16.1.1	Crown Communication will issue an invoice to the Customer (Closing Invoice) in respect of:
	(f) any indirect or consequential loss; and	(a)	any Goods and Services supplied but not yet invoiced in full; and
14.1.2	Crown Communication's total liability to the Customer arising in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in no circumstances exceed the amount paid by the Customer to Crown Communication under the Contract as at the date the loss arose.	(b)	where applicable, the Investment Recovery Charge.
14.2	Any warranties, conditions or other terms implied by common law or statute are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.
14.3	Crown Communication shall not be liable to the Customer or be deemed to be in breach of the Contract by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of Crown Communication's obligations if the delay or failure was due to a Force Majeure Event.
14.4	Nothing in these Conditions excludes or limits the liability of a party for:
14.4.1	death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or the negligence of its employees, agents or subcontractors;
14.4.2	fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or

- 16.1.2 the Closing Invoice will be payable by the Customer immediately on receipt;
- 16.1.3 all payments payable to Crown Communication by the Customer under this Contract shall become immediately due and payable;
- 16.1.4 any remaining Investment (either accrued to the date of termination or which would have accrued to the end of the Minimum Term had the Contract not been terminated) shall be forfeited in full to Crown Communication;
- 16.1.5 upon where any Goods are to be returned to Crown Communication, the Customer shall request promptly (and in any case within 14 days of Crown Communication's written request) pay to Crown Communication a handling fee in respect of each unit of Goods;
- 16.1.6 the accrued rights and remedies of the parties as at termination shall not be affected, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination or expiry; and
- 16.1.7 the following clauses shall continue in force: clause 2 (Interpretation), clause 14 (Liability), clause 16 (Consequences of termination), clause 18 (Data protection), clause 20.1 (Intellectual property), clause 20.4 (Confidentiality), clause 20.5 (Entire agreement), clause 20.7 (Waiver) and clause 20.12 (Governing law and jurisdiction).
- 16.2 Without limiting its other rights or remedies, Crown Communication may suspend provision of Goods and/or Services under the Contract or any other contract between Crown Communication and the Customer if the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in clauses 15.2.3 to 15.2.12, or if the Customer fails to pay any amount due under the Contract or any Provider Agreement on the due date for payment.
- 17 Complaints
- If the Customer wishes to make a complaint about the Services, the Customer must follow the Crown Communication Complaints Procedure <https://crown-communication.co.uk/privacy-policy> (or any other online address that Crown Communication advises the Customer of).
- 18 Data protection
- 18.1 Both parties will comply with all applicable requirements of the Data Protection Legislation. This clause 18 is in addition to, and does not relieve, remove or replace, a party's obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.
- 18.2 The parties acknowledge that for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation, Crown Communication is the Controller in limited circumstances, including:
- 18.2.1 processing traffic data for the purposes of calculating Charges and understanding communication flow through the Network; and
- 18.2.2 administering and managing the Services and the Contract,
- in which case, Crown Communication shall carry out processing in accordance with its Privacy Policy.
- 18.3 Subject to clause 18.2, the parties acknowledge that for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation, the Customer is the Controller and Crown Communication is the Processor.
- 18.4 The following table sets out the scope, nature and purpose of processing by
- | | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| Subject matter | The processing of the Data Subjects' Personal Data in order to provide the Customer (and the Data Subjects) with Goods and/or Services pursuant to the Contract. |
| Duration | Throughout the term of the Contract. |
| Categories of data | Any Personal Data transferred by the Customer to Crown Communication under this Contract, including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - title; - full name; and - job title. |
| Categories of Data Subjects | Employees of the Customer (or such other persons authorised by the Customer to make use of the Services). |
| Nature of processing | Storing and using the information to fulfil the Contract. |
| Purposes of processing | To provide the Customer (and the Data Subjects) with Goods and/or Services pursuant to the Contract. |
- 18.5 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 18.1, the Customer will ensure that it has all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of any Personal Data to Crown Communication for the duration and purposes of the Contract, and will transfer to Crown Communication only the Personal Data that Crown Communication requires in order to perform its obligations under the Contract.
- 18.6 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 18.1, Crown Communication shall, in relation to any Personal Data processed by Crown Communication in connection with the Contract:
- 18.6.1 process the Personal Data only in accordance with the Contract unless Crown Communication is required by Applicable Law to otherwise process that Personal Data. Where Crown Communication is relying on the laws of a member of the European Union or European Union law as the basis for processing Personal Data, Crown Communication shall promptly notify the Customer of this before performing the processing required by the Applicable Law unless that Applicable Law prohibits Crown Communication from so notifying the Customer;
- 18.6.2 ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of Personal Data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, Personal Data, appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures (those measures may include, where appropriate, pseudonymising and encrypting Personal Data, ensuring confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of its systems and services, ensuring that availability of and access to Personal Data can be restored in a timely

- 18.6.3 ensure that all personnel who have access to and/or process Personal Data are obliged to keep the Personal Data confidential;
- 18.6.4 not transfer any Personal Data outside of the United Kingdom and/or European Economic Area unless the prior written consent of the Customer has been obtained and the following conditions are fulfilled:
- (a) the Customer or Crown Communication has provided appropriate safeguards in relation to the transfer;
- (b) the Data Subject has enforceable rights and effective legal remedies;
- (c) Crown Communication complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation by providing an adequate level of protection to any Personal Data that is transferred; and
- (d) Crown Communication complies with reasonable instructions notified to it in advance by the Customer with respect to the processing of the Personal Data;
- 18.6.5 assist the Customer, at the Customer's cost, in responding to any request from a Data Subject and in ensuring compliance with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators;
- 18.6.6 notify the Customer without undue delay on becoming aware of a Personal Data breach; and
- 18.6.7 at the written direction of the Customer, delete or return Personal Data and copies thereof to the Customer on termination of Contract unless required by Applicable Law to store the Personal Data.
- 18.7 The Customer consents to Crown Communication appointing third-party processors of Personal Data (Sub-Processors) as set out in the Privacy Policy. Crown Communication confirms that it has entered or (as the case may be) will enter with each Sub-Processor into a written agreement incorporating terms which are substantially similar to those set out in this clause 18. As between the Customer and Crown Communication, Crown Communication shall remain fully liable for all acts or omissions of any Sub-Processor appointed by it pursuant to this clause 18.7. The Customer acknowledges that for the purposes of this Contract the Provider is not a Sub-Processor and the data processing activities of the Provider will be governed by the Provider Agreement.
- 18.8 Crown Communication may, at any time on not less than 30 days' notice (pursuant to clause 20.6.2), revise this clause 18 by replacing it with any applicable controller to processor standard clauses or similar terms forming part of an applicable certification scheme.
- 18.9 Data Protection Liability and Indemnity
- 18.9.1 The Customer shall indemnify and keep indemnified Crown Communication in respect of
- all Data Protection Losses suffered or incurred by, awarded against or agreed to be paid by Crown Communication and any Sub-Processor arising from or in connection with any:
- Legislation; or
- (b) breach by the Customer of any of its obligations under clause 18, except to the extent Crown Communication is liable under clause 18.9.2.
- 18.9.2 Crown Communication shall be liable for Data Protection Losses (howsoever arising, whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise) under or in connection with this Contract:
- (a) only to the extent caused by the processing of Personal Data under the Contract and directly resulting from Crown Communication's breach of clause 18; and
- (b) in no circumstances to the extent that any Data Protection Losses (or the circumstances giving rise to them) are contributed to or caused by any breach of the Contract by the Customer.
- 18.9.3 If a party receives a compensation claim from a person relating to processing of Personal Data, it shall promptly provide the other party with notice and full details of such claim. The party with conduct of the action shall:
- (a) make no admission of liability nor agree to any settlement or compromise of the relevant claim without the prior written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); and
- (b) consult fully with the other party in relation to any such action, but the terms of any settlement or compromise of the claim will be exclusively the decision of the party that is responsible under the Contract for paying the compensation.
- 18.9.4 The parties agree that the Customer shall not be entitled to claim back from Crown Communication any part of any compensation paid by the Customer in respect of such damage to the extent that the Customer is liable to indemnify Crown Communication in accordance with clause 18.9.1.
- 18.9.5 This clause 18.9 is intended to apply to the allocation of liability for Data Protection Losses as between the parties, including with respect to compensation to Data Subjects, notwithstanding any provisions under Data Protection Legislation to the contrary, except:
- (a) to the extent not permitted by Applicable Law (including Data Protection Legislation); and
- (b) that it does not affect the liability of either party to any Data Subject.
- 19 Anti-bribery
- Each party will comply in all respects with the Bribery Act 2010 and other relevant Applicable Law, regulations and sanctions relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption.

Each party will maintain adequate procedures designed to prevent bribery and appropriate anti-bribery and corruption policies and procedures.	20.5.6 Any typographical, clerical or other accidental errors or omissions in Order Forms and/or any sales literature, quotation, price list, invoice or other document or information issued by Crown Communication shall be subject to correction without any liability on the part of Crown Communication.
20 General
20.1 Intellectual property All Intellectual Property Rights in or arising out of or in connection with the Services shall be owned by Crown Communication or its licensors.	20.6 Variation
20.2 Force majeure Neither party shall be in breach of the Contract nor liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any of its obligations under the Contract if such delay or failure result from a Force Majeure Event. If the period of delay or non-performance continues for 2 months, the party not affected may terminate the Contract immediately by giving Notice to the affected party.	20.6.1 The provisions in this clause 20.6 are without prejudice to the respective rights of the parties (including Crown Communication's rights to make changes to Goods, Services and/or prices) as set out elsewhere in the Contract. 20.6.2 Crown Communication may amend the Contract at any time by publishing the Amendment online at https://crown-communication.co.uk/privacy-policy (or any other online address that Crown Communication advises the Customer of) and/or by giving Notice to the Customer.
20.3 Assignment and other dealings 20.3.1 Crown Communication may at any time assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights under the Contract and may subcontract or delegate in any manner any or all of its obligations under the Contract to any third party. 20.3.2 The Customer shall not, without the prior written consent of Crown Communication (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), assign, transfer, charge, subcontract, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract.	20.6.3 No other variation of the Contract shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives). 20.7 Waiver A waiver of any right or remedy is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. A delay or failure to exercise, or the single or partial exercise of, any right or remedy shall not: 20.7.1 waive that or any other right or remedy; or 20.7.2 prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
20.4 Confidentiality 20.4.1 Each party undertakes that it shall not at any time during the Contract, and for a period of two years after termination of the Contract, disclose to any person any confidential information concerning the business, affairs, customers, clients or suppliers of the other party, except as permitted by clause 20.4.2. 20.4.2 Each party may disclose the other party's confidential information: (a) to its employees, officers, representatives, subcontractors or advisers who need to know such information for the purposes of carrying out the party's obligations under the Contract. Each party shall ensure that its employees, officers, representatives, subcontractors or advisers to whom it discloses the other party's confidential information comply with this clause 20.4; and (b) as may be required by law, a court of competent jurisdiction or any governmental or regulatory authority. 20.4.3 The provisions of this clause 20.4 shall continue in force in accordance with their terms, notwithstanding the termination of the Contract for any reason.	20.8 Severance If any provision or part-provision of the Contract is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable, it shall be deemed modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid, legal and enforceable. If such modification is not possible, the relevant provision or part-provision shall be deemed deleted. Any modification to or deletion of a provision or part-provision under this clause shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the rest of the Contract. 20.9 Notices 20.9.1 Save where specified otherwise, any notice or other communication required to be given to a party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be: (a) delivered to the other party personally; or (b) sent by prepaid post, recorded delivery or by commercial courier, at its registered office (where sent by the Customer) or the billing address set out in the Order Form (where sent by Crown Communication); or (c) sent by email to enquiries@crown-communication.co.uk (where sent by the Customer) or to the billing email address set out in the Order Form (where sent by Crown Communication),
20.5 Entire agreement 20.5.1 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes and extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter. 20.5.2 The Customer acknowledges that it has not relied on, and shall have no remedies in respect of, any statement, promise, representation, assurance or warranty made or given (whether innocently or negligently) by or on behalf of Crown Communication that is not set out in the Contract. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in the Contract. 20.5.3 Any samples, drawings, descriptive matter or advertising issued by Crown Communication and any illustrations or descriptions of the Goods or the Services on Crown Communication's website are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the Goods and/or Services described in them. They shall not form part of the Contract or have any contractual force. 20.5.4 These Conditions apply to the Contract to the exclusion of any other terms that the Customer seeks to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing. 20.5.5 Crown Communication's employees or agents are not authorised to make any representations concerning the Goods and/or Services unless confirmed by Crown Communication in writing. In entering into the Contract, the Customer acknowledges that it does not rely on, and waives any claim for breach of, any such representations which are not so confirmed.	or such other address or email address as a party may have specified to the other party in writing in accordance with this clause. 20.9.2 Any notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been duly received if delivered personally when left at such address or, if sent by prepaid post or recorded delivery at 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting or, if delivered by commercial courier, on the date and at the time that the courier's delivery receipt is signed. Notices sent by email will be deemed served one Business Day after transmission. 20.9.3 The provisions of this clause shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action. 20.10 Third party rights No one other than a party to the Contract shall have any right to enforce any of its terms. 20.11 Counterparts The Contract may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall constitute an original of the Contract but all the counterparts shall together constitute the same agreement. 20.12 Governing law and jurisdiction The Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law, and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
